St. James's, December 4.

THE following Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to the Lord Viscount Weymouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of Your faithful City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave humbly to approach Your Majesty with the most sincere Assurance of our steady Attachment to Your Majesty's Illustrious Person and Family, and our ardent Wishes that Your Reign over us may be long, and as tranquilly distinguished as Your Virtues.

Emboldened by our Experience of that Attention which Your Majesty affords to every Part of Your Subjects, permit us, most Gracious Sir, to represent, at the Foot of Your Throne, that from some Defects in the present Laws relative to Corn, Flour, and other Necessaries of Life, in the Laws affecting the Police of this City, and from the Expiration of several temporary Statutes, a Situation in which we most humbly conceive we can only be relieved by the Meeting of Parliament, Your faithful Subjects of this Metropolis experience many and great Difficulties, and apprehend yet greater.

Pardon, most Gracious Sovereign, that we presume further to submit to Your parental Goodness, that certain public Works, necessary to the Commerce of this City, which were begun and promoted by National-Bounty, must be indebted to the same Bounty for their Completion; and that Your Subjects of this Metropolis, who, by large Importations of the Manufactures of Great Britain, have provided for their domestic Consumption, which in every alternate Year encreases in Proportion to the Number assembled for National Business, do already feel a Decay of their Trade and Credit, even from a temporary Decrease of Inhabitants.

Grateful for the many Blessings derived to us from Your Majesty's parental Affection, and conscious that relieving the Wants of Your People succeeds to the Knowledge of them, we presume to obtrude our Cares upon Your Majesty's more weighty Concerns, and humbly beseech Your Majesty to take these our Circumstances into Your Royal Consideration, and to grant us such Relief as Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall think fit.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed, this Twenty-ninth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For Encouraging Landmen to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it is Our Royal Intention to give all due Encouragement to all such Landmen, who shall voluntarily enter themselves in Our Service; We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation; and We do hereby promise and declare, That all such Able Bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five Years, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for Our Service, who shall, on or before the Thirty-first Day of December next, voluntarily enter themselves to serve on Board Our Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of Our Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as shall be employed for raising Men for the Service of Our Navy, shall receive, as Our Royal Bounty, the Sum of Twenty Shillings each Man; such Sum to be paid them by the respective Clerks of the Cheque residing at the Ports or Places where the Ships into which they shall be entered, shall be immediately after the Third Muster of such Men. And for Prevention of any Abuses by any Persons leaving the Vessels to which they shall belong, and entering themselves on Board any other Ships or Vessels in order to obtain the said Bounty-Money; We do hereby declare and command, That such Men, belonging to any of Our Ships or Vessels, as shall absent themselves from any of the said Ships or Vessels to which they shall belong, and shall enter themselves on Board any other of Our said Ships or Vessels in order to obtain the said Bounty, shall not only lose the Wages due to them in the Ships or Vessels they shall leave, but also be severely punished according to their Demerits.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Thirtieth Day of November, 1770, in the Eleventh Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's, November 27, 1770.

IT is His Majesty's Pleasure, that all Officers, belonging to His Land Forces, serving in Ireland, do immediately repair to their respective Posts in that Kingdom, except such as are employed on the Recruiting Service.
